Description

The Victorian Planning Authority has released two spatial datasets relating to Melbourne's Greenfield Precinct Structure Plans. These are – 'PSP Boundaries' and 'FUS LandUse'.

PSP Boundaries

The declared growth areas of Melbourne have been divided into 117 precincts, each of which will have a Precinct Structure Plan (PSP) completed to help guide the development of new residential and commercial areas. The PSP Boundaries Layer contains the boundaries of each of these 117 precincts.

FUS LandUse

Each PSP describes the planned land uses for new development in specific parts of Melbourne's Growth Areas. The official Future Urban Structure (FUS) plan for any individual area is contained in the approved PSP documents incorporated into the relevant municipal planning schemes for that area. Copies are available as *pdf downloads [here] or from the relevant municipality.

The Victorian Planning Authority's (VPA's) FUS LandUse data has been generated by amalgamating individual PSP data. Various PSPs have been generated over many years and by different organisations and processes. This FUS data is therefore a simplified combination of data that originally comprised different formats and structures.

The VPA's FUS LandUse data has no official status and is provided solely to assist in land use planning in areas within or adjacent to areas with completed PSP, and should be treated as having been provided for general information purposes only. If accurate information is required, the reader is directed to the information contained within the relevant individual official Planning Scheme, Planning Scheme Amendment and Precinct Structure Plan.

Data Scope

The PSP Boundaries layer contains all 117 PSPs across Melbourne's Growth Areas

The FUS LandUse layer extends only to Approved PSP areas. PSPs at draft or exhibition stage are not included. Currently the FUS spatial data only includes the planned land-uses in polygon format. Linear features (eg Roads, Paths, Utility lines, etc) shown in the FUS plans are not included.

Geometry Validation

PSP Boundaries should not overlap (there is the odd exception where a later PSP has overlapped with a previously completed PSP to revise a small area in line with the overall future plan).

All areas within a PSP boundary should be allocated a FUS LandUse. There should be no gaps and no overlaps between FUS LandUse polygon features.

Land Use Data Values

LU_CLASS	LU_TYPE	LU_SUBTYPE	Description
_	_	Existing Road Reserve	Any existing road reserve to be used for future/current arterial road
		Public Acquisition Overlay	Widening/Intersections/New Road/Rail covered by a PAO (existing or planned)
		Widening/Intersection Flaring	Other arterial road widening not under a PAO (often DCP land)
	Arterial Road	Future Arterial Road	Used where the entire future arterial road is new (not just widening of existing road). Also used for past precincts where existing reserve/widening was not differentiated.
		Grade Separation	Areas required for grade separation
		Tree Reserve Abutting Road Reserve
Transport		Tree Reserve Abutting Road Reserve
	Non-Arterial Road	Existing Road Reserve	Existing road reserve that is not available for development (ie. Being retained as a local/connector road). Future local/connector roads form part of developable land
		Existing Rail Reserve	Existing rail corridor land
		Public Acquisition Overlay	Future rail reserve covered by a PAO
	Rail	Future Rail Reserve	Land set aside for future/proposed rail reserve
		Grade Separation	Areas required for rail/road grade separation
		Transport Hub	Land set aside for Stations, Station Car Parks, etc
